GENERAL INFORMATION

Trail runners, mark your calendars! The highly anticipated Alpenglow 100 Trail Running Race will take place on July 4th – 6th weekend in Valemount, BC. This exciting new event promises breathtaking views via high alpine terrain, climbing all the way up to 2400 meters / almost 7800ft, and will certainly be an unforgettable challenge for runners of all skill levels.

Valemount (Valley - Mountains) is the confluence of three mountain ranges; the Rockies, Cariboos and Monashees, and is located just around the corner from Mt. Robson (20 minutes away), which is itself just 1 hour west of world-famous Jasper, AB. Mt. Robson is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, and the second highest peak entirely within BC at over 3900m / 12,900 feet.

Whether you're a seasoned trail runner or a first-time participant, The Alpenglow 100 will offer a unique opportunity to connect with nature and push your limits. The race features three different courses, ensuring there's a perfect trail for everyone

- 35km, +/- 1700m / 5,550ft
- 60km, +/- 3300m / 10,800ft
- 100km, +/- 4800m / 15,750ft

Event Highlights:

- High alpine singletrack
- 3 distance options
- An excited local community just waiting to welcome you to town
- Post-race festivities including live music and on site food

“Looking for the perfect excuse to finally take that dream family vacation to the Canadian Rockies? Look no further than The Alpenglow 100 in Valemount, BC. A small community of outdoor enthusiasts have built a relative mecca for outdoor adventures, and even the most seasoned mountain travellers will be taken aback by all this area has to offer. Family friendly hikes to epic scenery abound, including Kinney Lake at the foot of Mt. Robson, which is but a 20 min drive away. If you’ve never stared up at the dramatic south face of this almost 13,000ft behemoth, then quite frankly you’ve not seen all that the Canadian Rockies has to offer.” - Gary Robbins
